GOVERNMENT ORDER ON RAGGING

The Tamilnadu Government has passed an ACT No. 7 of 1997 in Legislative Assembly. The Extract of the above act is as follows.

Extract of Act No. 7 of 1997

1. Prohibition of Ragging

The Prohibition of Ragging act of Tamil Nadu 1997 defines ragging as follows :

Display of noisy, disorderly conduct doing any act which causes or is likely to cause physical or psychological harm or raise apprehension or fear or shame or embarrassment to a student in any educational institution and includes –

a) teasing, abusing or playing practical jokes on, or causing hurt to such student or

b) asking the students to do any act or perform something which such student will not in the ordinary course willing to do.

Ragging within or outside any educational Institution is prohibited by this act.

2. Penalty for Ragging.

Whoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates “Ragging” within or outside any educational Institution, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and shall also be liable to a fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

3. Dismissal of Students

Any student convicted on an offence under this section shall also be dismissed from the educational Institution and such student shall not be admitted in any other educational institution. The Hon’ble Supreme Court of India in its order dated 16.05.2007 in SLP(C) No.24292/2004 has given specific directions in this regard which is as follows.

“If any incidents of ragging comes to the notice of the authority the concerned student shall be given liberty to explain and if his explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him from the Institutions”.

4. Suspension of student

Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, whenever any student complains of ragging to the Head of an educational institution or to any other person responsible for management of the educational institution he/she shall enquire into the same immediately and if found true shall suspend the student, who has committed the offence, from the educational Institution.
